

PETER!

This is a game for two or three. Before playing the game revise or pre-teach the vocabulary used in the activity. To do this, you can use playing cards as flashcards.

Shuffle the cards and deal them.

Players check if they have any pairs.

A pair consists of a picture with its name and a card with the text, for example:

My name is Barbara.

Players put the pairs they have found aside.

Then one player chooses one card from his or her partner's set.

If the chosen card matches any of his or her cards, he or she puts the pair aside.

Now it is another player's turn to play.

The loser is the one who's left with the "PETER!" card.

Preparation

Print out a Peter card and matching cards. If you want, you can stick the printout onto the heavy paper.

Cut out the individual cards, fold them and glue.

You can laminate your cards for future use.
