

There are many different ways of making polite requests in English. If you are requesting something for yourself, use: Can I have ... ?

Countable nouns are those we can count.
They can be singular or plural.

one apple

two apples

three apples

an apple

a banana

a carrot

an egg

a lemon

a lollipop

an onion

an orange

a pear

a tomato

Uncountable nouns are those we cannot count.
They have no plural form.

some milk

some cheese

some bread

some water

bread

butter

cheese

chocolate

flour

honey

ketchup

milk

sugar

water

