

drive fast cars

Present Simple. He, she, it

drink milk

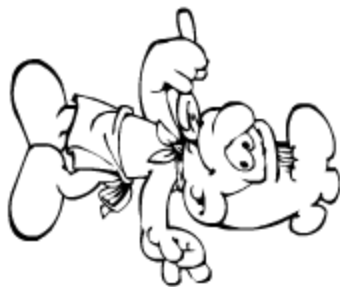

Present Simple. He, she, it

dance the salsa

Present Simple. He, she, it

cook well

Present Simple. He, she, it

Present Simple. He, she, it

He drives fast cars.

He doesn't drive fast cars.

Does he drive fast cars?
Yes, he does.
No, he doesn't.

drive fast cars

Present Simple. He, she, it

He drinks milk.

He doesn't drink milk.

Does he drink milk?
Yes, he does.
No, he doesn't.

drink milk

Present Simple. He, she, it

She dances the salsa.

She doesn't dance the salsa.

Does she dance the salsa?
Yes, she does.
No, she doesn't.

dance the salsa

Present Simple. He, she, it

He cooks well.

He doesn't cook well.

Does he cook well?
Yes, he does.
No, he doesn't.

cook well

Cut out the individual cards along dashed lines, fold them and glue.

CUT OUT

FOLD

eat hot dogs

Present Simple. He, she, it

Present Simple. He, she, it

He eats hot dogs.

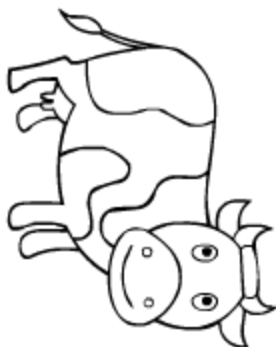

He doesn't eat hot dogs.

Does he eat hot dogs?
Yes, he does.
No, he doesn't.

eat hot dogs

give milk

Present Simple. He, she, it

Present Simple. He, she, it

It gives milk.

It doesn't give milk.

Does it give milk?
Yes, it does.
No, it doesn't.

give milk

have wings

Present Simple. He, she, it

Present Simple. He, she, it

It has wings.

It doesn't have wings.

Does it have wings?
Yes, it does.
No, it doesn't.

have wings

jump high

Present Simple. He, she, it

Present Simple. He, she, it

He jumps high.

He doesn't jump high.

Does he jump high?
Yes, he does.
No, he doesn't.

jump high

Cut out the individual cards along dashed lines, fold them and glue.

CUT OUT

FOLD

like flowers

Present Simple. He, she, it

Present Simple. He, she, it

 She likes flowers.

 She doesn't like flowers.

 Does she like flowers?

Yes, she does.
No, she doesn't.

like flowers

live in Africa

Present Simple. He, she, it

Present Simple. He, she, it

 It lives in Africa.

 It doesn't live in Africa.

 Does it live in Africa?

Yes, it does.
No, it doesn't.

live in Africa

make soups

Present Simple. He, she, it

Present Simple. He, she, it

 He makes soups.

 He doesn't make soups.

 Does he make soups?

Yes, he does.
No, he doesn't.

make soups

paint portraits

Present Simple. He, she, it

Present Simple. He, she, it

 He paints portraits.

 He doesn't paint portraits.

 Does he paint portraits?

Yes, he does.
No, he doesn't.

paint portraits

Cut out the individual cards along dashed lines,
fold them and glue.

CUT OUT

FOLD

play the trumpet

Present Simple. He, she, it

Present Simple. He, she, it

He plays the trumpet.

He doesn't play the trumpet.

Does he play the trumpet?
Yes, he does.
No, he doesn't.

play the trumpet

read newspapers

Present Simple. He, she, it

Present Simple. He, she, it

He reads newspapers.

He doesn't read newspapers.

Does he read newspapers?
Yes, he does.
No, he doesn't.

read newspapers

ride a bike

Present Simple. He, she, it

Present Simple. He, she, it

He rides a bike.

He doesn't ride a bike.

Does he ride a bike?
Yes, he does.
No, he doesn't.

ride a bike

skate well

Present Simple. He, she, it

Present Simple. He, she, it

He skates well.

He doesn't skate well.

Does he skate well?
Yes, he does.
No, he doesn't.

skate well

Cut out the individual cards along dashed lines, fold them and glue.

CUT OUT

FOLD

sleep a lot

Present Simple. He, she, it

swim fast

Present Simple. He, she, it

watch TV

Present Simple. He, she, it

write poems

Present Simple. He, she, it

Present Simple. He, she, it

It sleeps a lot.

It doesn't sleep a lot.

Does it sleep a lot?

Yes, it does.
No, it doesn't.

sleep a lot

Present Simple. He, she, it

He swims fast.

He doesn't swim fast.

Does he swim fast?

Yes, he does.
No, he doesn't.

swim fast

Present Simple. He, she, it

She watches TV.

She doesn't watch TV.

Does she watch TV?

Yes, she does.
No, she doesn't.

watch TV

Present Simple. He, she, it

He writes poems.

He doesn't write poems.

Does he write poems?

Yes, he does.
No, he doesn't.

write poems

Cut out the individual cards along dashed lines, fold them and glue.

CUT OUT

FOLD